

March 20, 2020

Please read for updated information.

Dear Pequannock Township Library Community,

The Pequannock Township Public Library is committed to the safety and well-being of our patrons and staff. Effective Friday, March 20; we are fully closed, and will remain closed until further notice.

Important information:

Fines and Library material you have out on your record:

We are asking you not to return any library materials while we are closed. The MAIN Libraries are fine free until April 30.

Holds:

Statewide delivery service is suspended. Holds that are listed as ready for pick up will be here until we reopen.

Digital Resources:

If you have a specific question or problem with using digital resources, please email peqref@gmail.com.

More Information:

We will continue to provide up to date information via the Library website, Facebook and other social media platforms. We will also use the Library enewsletter as a way to communicate. If you would like to sign up to receive the enewsletter, please email peqref@gmail.com.

Thank you for your continued support. Please stay safe!
